What's new in Elden Ring:

Played the trial on load. Works great! No problems at all. My only complaint is the download speed. Its not wthegreat! It takes me forever to download games. Pre-Game Loading Sep 16, 2012 by paingobbler Too many things go wrong pre-game loading. i can never get past one of those start up screens. I will reset the computer and try again and it will crash. I am a hard core reaver so I'm not jumping through hoops to get in. but now it is running every time. I tried it once without pre-game and it also ran. very disappointed. Innovation? At least it runs! Sep 16, 2012 by zahoraqi Not much innovation in the game. Pretty much what you would expect from a game that is packaged to be a post apocalpytic game. Overall though a decent game and a great open world, if you can stand the very load times and loading screens. 4.5/5 Addictive Sep 16, 2012 by scarcroft I've not played Far Cry 3 yet, and I haven't beaten Dark Souls. But I've played some and I've heard good things. Anyways I went ahead and downloaded Far Cry 3 at work (lame security restrictions) and I love it. It's only a few hours in, but it has a similar feel to Elder Scrolls 4: Oblivion because it's such a grand world to explore. If you love open worlds and also gameplay with a lot of things to do and some interesting story to go with it, this is the game for you. 4.5/5 A cool game with tons of content. Sep 14, 2012 by Warverus I like this game. It's a different kind of game. From a new standard in action games. They've created a game where you feel like you're not a hero, you're not a hero, and you're not a hero. It takes the cliches down to a new level. My main fan complaint is the loading time. Sometimes it can take up to 5 minutes or a minute plus. When the load time goes up, I quit the game, its too frustrating. By the way, if you are a fan of Far Cry 3, I recommend. Its worth the money. They do not glory in battle or plot for slaughter. They do not rejoice in battle or loathe it. They are not born into battle. The true hero understands this and lives it. Then when battle comes and death is his reward, he is ready and fit and whole and untouched by regret. In battle there is no room for hatred or lust or fear. If you hate your enemy, then it is you who is weak and the enemy is your strength. The warrior is fit, whole, and untouched by love or hate or fear.
