The ultimate medical game, with three difficulties, multiple difficulty settings, random generator, special modded cards, and many more features not included in your average "status" game. This game is about "medical" in the best sense. You will play with the finest of modern medicine, as you try to save lives. Features: * 20+ (?) challenging levels * 3 difficulty settings * 5 medical scenarios of increasing severity * Random generator at each level to make your life even more challenging * 20+ different modded cards * Special cards for each difficulty * Extra modded cards when you reach the 3rd difficulty * 6 deadly weapons (drills, saw, scalpel, drill, drill+saw, electro-shock) * Many more special modded cards and functions that you will discover during the game About the Game: Imagine if you can play a card game, a trivia game, and a deadly game at the same time! Not only that, but you can also enter a "Drill mode" to increase your chances of winning!

Now imagine if you could do that with 20+ different scenarios and the most extreme difficulty you have ever experienced! For example, you will play with your wife, your kids, or your friends, and it won't only be about avoiding a nasty burn, it will also become deadly! We know that every status game has its own unique style and features, but this is certainly not like other "status" games you have seen, or played. This is a "medical" game where you play with "medicine", not money! You have plenty of different ways to play the game in this "extreme" version, but you must have at least one "drill" mode! Try it out. Buy it. Share it. Tears or Joy. What's on your mind? My medical game review: The Good, The Bad, The Ugly I would love to hear what you think of the game, and if you have any requests. Gameplay Hyper Knights - Sabotage: The kirigami pants have been widely used throughout the planet, the long legs have become standard in most fashion. Almost all activity wears a pair of kirigami pants. The combination of cloth and fabric is so perfect, it doesn't burn the skin. It even has tiny holes to release sweat. For people with a temperature greater than 30 degrees, this is the best pant material. Kirigami pant is much more convenient to be used, it also makes a person look more interesting and modern.

Contents Sabotage of the Outpost Success With any luck, the enemy's Outpost will collapse under the weight of its own construction. Fear Some minor consequences may be experienced, such as nervousness, sorrow, anger. This is a Tumbling Riposte. You will receive no reinforcements, so you are reliant on your defense skill. You are encouraged to use jump attacks, and use impregnable positions to get the advantage. Speed is key here. You want to cut off any incoming fire, and if you can counter-attack while the enemy is blocked, even better. If they are attacking your adjacent units, use Jump Attacks to get them to close range. As long as you have plenty of supply you can afford to lose a few drops of health and you will recover. A chain of units that cannot be penetrated will break the enemy's flank, and then can be smashed into the back. Follow-up can be a little difficult. The enemy will likely retreat back, making the next enemy easier to block if you want to rush in for a counterattack. Better still, if you manage to establish a complete defense on the far side of the map, you can destroy their ground units, and your high-power units can easily destroy the rest, even while they are forming up to start fresh. By themselves, these units are vulnerable to direct hits, especially if the enemy has a significant amount of side-to-

What's new in Choo-Choo Charles:

Warning: This article contains major spoilers for the Castle episode "Pilot", specifically The Evil Queen's part of the episode. Proceed with caution. "It's called the Dungeon, people. As in prison. And one by one the prisoners go mad and die. That's a good one, right? We're sending the Mad Ones into the Dungeon. It's happening. Tell Henry to bunk up, he's got another one." —Glinda After the curse went on and on, the jealous witch was thrown out of all three realms, even when she was a good witch. But one place she was not banned from was the Land of Oz, which only meant one thing: in trying to get back to the Emerald City and tell everyone about the curse, Glinda ended up in the Land of Oz. There, she told Ozma about her spell gone wrong and that Regina had finished it off. When Ozma heard this, she ran to keep Regina from getting out but got attacked by a giant pixie. Regina took the news of Glinda being in Oz, and of the curse continuing, harder than Glinda could've ever expected. Regina quickly raced to Glinda's Lair and discovered she was locked up away from Regina in the Witch's Dungeon. Glinda told Regina that she was locked in and had no way of getting out. Regina wondered if Glinda was actually mad, but Glinda told her she was perfectly sane. "It's called the Dungeon, people. As in prison. And one by one the prisoners go mad and die. That's a good one, right? We're sending the Mad Ones into the Dungeon. It's happening. Tell Henry to bunk up, he's got another one." —Glinda Regina was given permission to come in and have a little chat with Glinda, but quickly said it wasn't her in the Wizard's name, this was to be treated as a childlike problem. The little prince was taken away, in order to have his problems dealt with. The next day, the prince was brought back, with a locket that Alice had taken from Regina. Regina still wasn't sure of whom it belonged to, but Glinda told Regina that she could have it for herself. Regina then thought she heard Glinda speaking on the locket and thought she was catching her on a lie, but it was really the voice of her son. Regina quickly recognized
